T. E. MOORE,

Chm'n Dem. Co. Com.

HAVING plucked the fruits of his ambition, Gov. Bradley has discovered to his disgust that they are Sodom apples. After sixteen months as Chief Executive of Kentucky he is not only anxious to retire from office, but he is so thoroughly disgusted with Kentucky politics that he is actually considering a refuge in Cincinnati—or the United States Senate. Statesmen should be made of tougher stuff.—[Louisville Times.]

MISS FRANCES WILLARD, for the W. C. T. U., has written President McKinley, entreating him to call upon Congress to prohibit the exhibition of kinetoscope pictures of the prize fight. A bill has been introduced in the Tennessee Legislature to bar it from the State, and Archbishop Ireland is out in an interview denouncing it. Bills prohibiting the exhibition of the pictures have already been introduced in Massachusetts and Illinois.

OVER 35,000 tickets have been already issued to the Moody meetings in Louisville. The main trouble lies in the fact that the tickets are being taken up by the church people, while the sinners are being left out. The people the evangelist ought to reach are not rushing in droves for seats.

KENTUCKY Republicans are still reaching out for pie. Otto Adams, of Athens, Ky., wants to be Collector of Internal Revenue at Richmond, and R. R. Dashiell, of Lexington, wants to be Surveyor of Customs, at Memphis.

SENATOR Lindsay, has introduced a bill to pension Cassius M. Clay, Sr., of Kentucky, a Major General in the volunteer army, at the rate of $100 a month.

KENTUCKY Republican Congressmen are said to be getting blue over the prospect for outside pie for their constituents.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY invited all the Washington correspondents to call on him at the White House Tuesday afternoon.

COLORADO Republicans in Madison county will not support any candidate who favors the separate coach law.

REPRESENTATIVES SETTLE and Rhea are expected to enliven the dull tariff debate in the House.

MARK HANNA has the Brice habit. He wears a red carnation every day. Mark is a dandy-lion.

HENRY REDD, a colored Democrat, is a candidate for Jailor in Madison county.

No Senator As Yet.

AT Frankfort yesterday the joint ballot resulted: Hunter, 67; Blackburn, 49; Davie, 13; Boyle, 6; Stone, 1. No election.

See second page for further Frankfort news.

Dr. Hunter fell two votes short of election on the first joint ballot for United States Senator taken at Frankfort Wednesday. He received 67 votes, but needed 79. The Bradley combination claims that some of these votes will leave Hunter when the word is given. Except the changes of Stout from Blackburn to Hunter and the additional vote of Robbins for Blackburn, the result of the joint ballot was similar to that of the separate ballot on Tuesday.

The Kentucky Legislature.

A BILL was introduced in the House by Mr. Thorne providing that all executions shall take place within the walls of the penitentiary at Frankfort.

John D. White, the "crested jayhawker," of the Eleventh district, attacked R. D. Hill in the lobby of the Capital Hotel at Frankfort. Hill is a member of the Republican State Central Committee from the Eleventh district, and was a strong supporter of Colson in his race against White for Congress. Hill was struck twice before friends separated the men.

THE rumors of attempted bribery in the senatorial race at Frankfort have led to the adoption of a resolution, introduced by Mr. Tompkins, providing for a committee of investigation.

The report published some weeks ago in regard to the death of Col. Jesse Peyton, of New Jersey, was not well founded. Col. Peyton is a native of Nicholas County, and has a world renowned reputation as being the originator of the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia, and the Chicago World's Fair. He has suggested the celebration of the 2000th anniversary of the Savior, to be held at Jerusalem in the year 2000.

The Jackson-Walling trial cost Campbell county upwards of $10,000. The Gun Goes Off

The Alabama Legislature has unanimously passed a law providing that train-wrecking shall be punishable with death, and a bill has been introduced into the Kentucky Legislature providing that participating in a mob may be punishable with death. In view of the recent records of both train-wreckers and mobs this is a bad time for the growth of the squeamish sentiment against capital punishment.—[Courier-Journal.]

Eld. J. T. Sharrard preached on "Prize Fighting," Sunday night at Stanford.

Will Not Perform Miracles But It Will Cure.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE cures nervous prostration. Not miraculously, but scientifically, by first removing the germs of disease, and then supplying healthy nerve food, increasing the appetite, helping digestion and strengthening the entire system. Desperate cases require prolonged treatment as shown by that of Mrs. M. B. Reed, of Delta, Iowa, who writes: "As the result of a lightning stroke, the physicians said I had a light stroke of paralysis, my limbs would all draw up. I would have throbbings in my chest that seemed unendurable. For three months I could not sleep and for three weeks did not close my eyes. I prayed for sleep, and felt that if relief did not come I would be dead or insane. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and the second night slept two hours and from that time on my health improved; slowly at first, but steadily and surely. I took in all 40 bottles, and I cannot express how grateful I am, for I am now perfectly well, and have taken no medicine for over four months." Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by druggists on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on heart and nerves free. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

The A. G. Fields Minstrels gave an excellent performance Tuesday night at the opera house. The costumes and stage settings used in the first part were exceedingly handsome, the songs were good, and most of the jokes were fresh. Apollo's slack-rope act was marvelous, and Ollie Young did a fine club swinging specialty. Eddie Fox, who was here last season with Herrman, contributed a violin specialty which won an encore. The descriptive song, "A Little Boy In Green," showing Mr. Fields' Arabian horse ridden by a youth, was very pretty. Mr. Fields did some effective work in his own peculiar style, but he should eliminate that "pouring water in the hat" joke. It is so ancient that one can almost see the whiskers on it growing. With this exception the show is remarkably good.

A minstrel troupe is to be organized soon at Cynthiana. Houstonville already has one.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Georgetown will present the operetta "The Belle of Saratoga," April 12th.

The Francis Jones Co. played the first half of this week in Georgetown, and is now in Lexington filling an engagement.

Frankfort amateurs will produce the comedy "Our Boys" some time next month. Several other plays will also be presented.

A. C. Gutzit, formerly of this city, is directing the rehearsal of the opera "Ship Aboy," which Lexington amateurs will sing in April. Mt. Sterling's musical citizens will sing "Pinafore" next month.

Lawrence Hundley (V. H. Davis), of this city, received an offer from Mabel Paige to do a vaudeville turn with her. He declined the offer to play six weeks, preferring to retain his position at the Paris postoffice.

The Bl. Boone Company which gave such an enjoyable concert at this city last year at the court house, will give a concert at the opera house, on April 7th. Blind Boone is a wonderful musician and plays with remarkable accuracy.

The Annie Davis Company of which Maurice Hedge, of this city, is a member, closes the season to-morrow night at Xenia, O. After spending a fortnight in Chicago, Mr. Hedge will make a visit in Bourbon, and then go to New York to play a Summer engagement.

The Metropolitan Opera House Co. will sing the following grand operas in Cincinnati next week: Monday night, "Carmen;" Tuesday "Seigfried;" Wednesday "Faust;" Thursday "Aida;" Friday "Lohengrin;" Saturday matinee "Carmen." Mme. Calve will appear only in Carmen and Faust, and the de Reszks appear only in Seigfried. The prices will be $3, $2.50, $2, $1.

A letter which passed through the Paris postoffice the other day had three bows of blue ribbon and one white bow tied on the outside of the envelope. It was evidently a love missive. Another letter which passed through the local office was directed as follows: "Roll me on at that rapid rolling rate to Louisville in Kentucky State; There let me stay until Mr. Comes to take me away."
